Dear Broadcasters:

Broadcasters are "Bringing Community Service Home" to the tune of 6.8 BILLION, according to the broadcast industry's first ever, nation wide community service census. And now we are asking you to spread the word.

The enclosed flyer highlights the industry's census results and includes many ideas designed to make it easy for you to communicate our $6.8 BILLION commitment to policymakers and your local communities. And don't be shy about using the airwaves to promote our terrific industry record. We have enclosed new public service announcements to help get you started.

Let us know how you implement the campaign at your station(s). We want to keep Washington policymakers and the media informed.

By showcasing our industry's exemplary dedication to community, this campaign promises incredible results. We will find better informed policymakers who appreciate broadcasters' voluntary commitment to community, beneficiaries who will speak out on our behalf, increased public appreciation for broadcasters' contributions and, perhaps most important, a revitalized industry which recognizes the key to its future is its commitment to localism.

Thanks in advance for your help.

NAB Radio Board Chair

K. James Yager

PS you only need 3000 watts per station as it should be per Communications Acts of 1927 and 1934.
